2nd V. Rich fields of wav...ing corn are seen Where hos....tile flags were streaming, And 1st V. Give me your hand, my own Jeannette, The wars at length are o...ver, And p

where the sword was flashing, now The sic...kle bright is gleaming; Lie still ye brawl...ing merry are the wedding bells That welcome back the ro...ver; The Song of Peace is hounds of war; Let peace our hearts en...light...en; Rest sword, and rust with...in your sheath, But on our hills. And all is cheerful la...bour, Where late we heard the din of strife The let the ploughshare brighten Good o...mens &c. war-pipe and the ta...bour: Good omens bless this happy day; The sun's bright rays are shedding Their loving light of Hope and joy Up..on the Soldier's wedding.
